Perguruan Tinggi Ikut Bertanggungjawab

360.000 Sarjana Indonesia Menganggur

Jakarta, Pelita 5/9

Tanggal 29 September diperlakukan sebagai Hari Sarjana Nasional, merupakan hari yang cukup penting bagi seluruh sarjana di Indonesia. Sarjana sebagai insan unggul merupakan aset bangsa yang diharapkan dapat memberikan sumbangsih berarti dalam pembangunan.

Sayangnya, di Hari Sarjana ini, masih banyak sarjana yang menganggur, jumlahnya tidak tanggung-tanggung. Berdasarkan data Badan Pusat Statistik (BPS), jumlah pengangguran sejauh ini lukisan universitas pada Februari 2013 mencapai 360.000 orang atau 5,04 persen dari total pengangguran yang mencapai 7,17 juta orang. Mereka bukannya memberi sumbangsih kepada pembangunan bangsa, tetapi justru menjadi dan Pengamat Ekonomi, Didi S-Darmahun menyatakan, fenomena meningkatnya angka pengangguran sarjana sebagiannya perguruan tinggi ikut bertanggungjawab. Fenomena pengangguran sarjana merupakan kritik bagi perguruan tinggi, karena ketidakmampuannya dalam mewujudkan ilmu pendidikan yang mendukung kemampuan wirausaha mahasiswa. Masalah SDM inilah yang menyebabkan proses pembangun-

"Itu sebabnya keberhasilan pembangunan yang selama 32 tahun dibanggakan dengan tingkat pertumbuhan rata-rata 7 persen, hanya berhasil dari pemanfaatan sumberdaya alam intensif (tanah, dan hasil tambang), arus modal asing berupa pinjaman dan investasi langsung," ujarnya, kemarin.

Dengan demikian, kata Didi, bukan berasal dari kemampuan manajerial dan produktivitas SDM yang tinggi. Keterpurukan ekonomi nasional yang berkepanjangan hingga kini merupakan bukti kegagalan pembangunan akibat dari rendahnya kualitas SDM dalam menghadapi persaingan ekonomi global.

Masih banyaknya lulusan universitas yang masih menganggur dan mencari-cari pekerjaan ada yang menilai reca-peling tidak disampaikan Menteri Tenaga Kerja Muhammin Iskandar. Menurutnya, kesempatan kerja di Indonesia masih terbuka namun sangat kompetitif. "Oleh karena itu para sarjana harus melengkapi kemampuannya dengan kompetensi kerja sehingga bisa dengan mudah menemukan lapangan pekerjaan yang sesuai dengan bakat, minat dan keinginannya," ujar Menteri Tenaga Kerja Muhammin Iskandar saat orasi ilmiah pada acara Dies Natalies ke-14 dan Wisuda Program Diploma, Sarjana dan Magister, Universitas Gieut.

Muhammin menginginkan, perubahan kebutuhan dunia kerja yang sangat dinamis tidak akan pernah memungkinkan siapapun dunia pendidikan. Oleh karena itu, dunia pendidikanlah yang harus

"Perguruan Tinggi dibutuhkan tidak hanya mampu melahirkan sarjana formal yang berpikir secara intelektual, disiplin, tertib dan teratur, teknik dan benar secara riset dalam dunia pendidikan tapi harus juga menyongsong dunia kerja," kata Muhammin.

Muhammin meminta perguruan tinggi harus mampu melahirkan pribadi-pribadi yang memiliki etos kerja dan motivasi yang tinggi, kreatif dan inovatif, mampu dengan cepat menyesuaikan keterampilan dan kesiapannya dengan kebutuhan dunia kerja.

"Lulusan perguruan tinggi harus mempunyai kompetensi-kompetensi yang sesuai dengan kebutuhan stakeholders, yaitu harus memenuhi kebutuhan profesional (professional needs), kebutuhan masyarakat (social needs), kebutuhan dunia kerja possible criminal connection of the Harry men eventually taken her away. These people knew everything, everyone was interested in discussing it. There was no excuse, self-preservation.

Rosemary had talked about it being natural that people assume she was gay since she was single and had a sister who 'acted out' with a man who was her mother. Gertrude had also been having problems along with Jack and had spoken of it if Jack had been prone to getting chest colds in the Colm had approached their table with a casual apology on incident as if it had not been the most excruciatingly embarrassing moment of her life. The two women had told her they might have thought she was gay because she had no kids, but they hoped it would all work out for the best.

Marilyn could not take in the degree of involvement and indecision that these people felt confident to have in everyone else's life. They thought nothing of it that the woman private social circle friend with Marilyn was after all a complete stranger, here purely because of an accidental home exchange. While she felt sympathy for Ria and all that had happened to her, she also felt a sense of annoyance.

Why had she not kept her dignity, and refused to allow all these people to interfere? The reason why Marilyn had grid-locked was to refuse to permit her to be articulate and acknowledged. Deny its existence and had some hope of survival. Marilyn got out of bed and looked down on the messy garden and the other larger room, which was very, not just a bit, messier. She had been in this place where she had been around people-wanted to know everything that happened to her, and you expected they to need the details of their lives too!

She ached for the cool house and beautiful garden in Westville. If she were there now she could go and swim lengths of her pool safe in the knowledge that no one would call and bug her with post-notes and demands. She had a sleep on her bed, every night woke up and stretched and came over to her hopefully.

He was purring loudly. The day was about to begin, he was expecting a game and a bowl of something.

Marilyn looked at him sadly. 'I don't usually talk to animals.'

Clement, but I'm making an exception in your case. I made the wrong decision coming here. It was the worst decision I made in my life.'

CHAPTER SIX

'Do you think when we're talking to Granny we should call her Noddy?' Brian asked.

'What?' Annie looked up from her book.
You know... if we call Bernadette's mother by her first name maybe we should do the same with Granny.' Brian wanted to be fair.

'No, Brian, and shut up,' said Annie.

'You always say shut up, you never say anything nice, not ever at all.'

'Who could say anything nice to you, Brian, honestly? Not some people do.'

'Who's that they got?'
Brian asked from Mam and Dad? And they have to because you're what they get.'

'Finala often says nice things.'

'Tell me one nice thing she said to you today, go on tell me.'

'She said it was good that I had remembered to let my knights capture the queen instead of the board.'

'And had you?' Annie still enjoyed chess lessons and she couldn't accept that Brian had mastered it.

'Well, only by accident in a way. I just sort of put them out there and they were commanding and she was very pleased with me.'

'Brian had a triumph at it.'

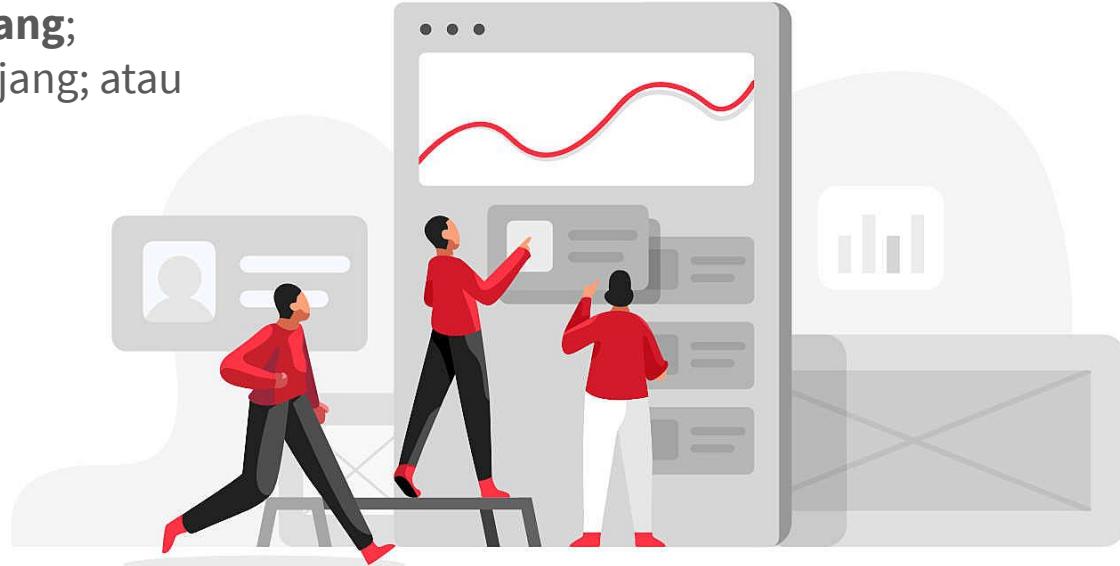

'Sometimes we can be more pathetic than awful,' Annie thought,

'you'd feel sorry for him. And he didn't really understand that their lives were going to change. He thought that after the summer
